

Shoes That Please

Our Women's Shoes never fail to please the most critical eye. They have a gracefulness and daintiness of style that all women like. Shoes to be handsome, artistic and skillfully made, need not be expensive shoes. Look at our women's shoes:

Patent Kid, Dull Tops, Light and Heavy Soles.
Military or French Heels, Lace or Button. . . $3.50 to $4.00

Vici Kid, Light or Extension Soles, Low, Medium or High Heels. . . $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50

Dongola, Patent, Leather Tips, Made in Stylish Lasts, well fitting and long wearing. . . $1.65, $2.00 and $2.25

A CUP OF PRIME COFFEE
is what goes straight to the heart of every man at breakfast time, and everyone knows that only good grocers keep good coffee. We take special pride in our brands, as they have made our store famous. Just as good as the coffee we sell are our teas, which principle holds good throughout our entire stock. We sell nothing but the best of food products—those we have tested ourselves, and so can swear by them.

Like Graham yesterday consummated the purchase of three lots on North Fourth street between First and New York avenues, upon which he will erect in the near future a modern, seven-room residence for rental purposes.

News has just been received in this city of the death in Emporia, Kan., of D. W. Hamer, of the firm of Hamer & Hamer, who was a brother to Mrs. J. H. Shufelbarger of this city. Mrs. Shufelbarger left Albuquerque last night for Emporia to be present at the funeral.

No. 2 arrived in Albuquerque this morning about two hours behind schedule time. The train was delayed as the result of stop-overs for connections. Passengers state that the freight wreck at Needles has been cleared up, there being no evidences of it when No. 2 passed.

John S. Macavish, the popular manager of the Becker-Blackwell Mercantile company, of Magdalena, is in the city on business, and will probably get through so as to return south this evening. Mr. Macavish formerly resided in this city, and met many old friends today.

Owen Dinsdale, former owner of the Highland livery stables in this city, has disposed of his stock to Thomas Ford, a former police officer, who has leased the building and will conduct the business in the future. It is stated that the business will be greatly enlarged and improved.

Miss Mabel P. Haywood, well known in this city, having formerly been in the Indian service for the department of the interior, and at one time located at the Albuquerque Indian school, arrived in the city last night from Washington, D. C., and will remain a day or two visiting friends, after which she will continue on her way to California, visiting the different Indian pueblos en route.

Prof. Knox, mental science lecturer and healer, noted throughout the United States and Canada, will address the citizens Thursday at Elks' hall at 8 o'clock p. m. on the subject of "Health and How to Overcome Poverty and Accumulate Wealth." Five more lectures follow this. Seats are free to all. A class will be formed, instructions showing how to be healed. Call at the Columbus hotel.

M. Fishback, a mining expert from the City of Mexico, and P. Koelmeyer of El Paso, who have been looking over New Mexico for zinc properties, left last night for the south. Both gentlemen returned but recently from San Pedro where an examination of properties was made. "New Mexico is very rich in zinc," remarked Mr. Koelmeyer, "and gives promise of being a great mining center in the near future, as mining investors are arriving in the territory daily from all parts of the country."

H. B. Steward, who for a number of years conducted a boot and shoe making business at Springer, N. M., making a specialty of cowboy boots, has moved his plant to this city and has opened a shop at 114 South Fourth street, in the new Glackler building. He will give particular attention to the main feature of new work, and persons who for any reason are unable to secure comfortable shoes from regular stock, can certainly get what they want by calling on him. Repairing will receive prompt attention, and he solicits a share of your patronage.

Hon. E. A. Miera, one of the best known republican politicians of central New Mexico, with home and headquarters at Cuba, Sandoval county, is in the city, and was a pleasant caller at The Citizen office this afternoon in company with Hon. F. A. Hubbell. Both gentlemen asked for Washington news, and were pleased when the prospects for joint statehood were very bright. Mr. Miera is one of the largest and most extensive sheep raisers in this section of New Mexico, and has accumulated quite a healthy bank roll the past season from the sale of wool, weathers and skins. He is the county collector and treasurer of Sandoval county.
